

CiA publications

□ Since 1992, CiA informs on latest trends and developments in its publications. The CAN Newsletter magazine, published quarterly, provides background information and deep technical insights. The CAN Newsletter Online provides information on current activities in the CAN community. In case you are searching for CAN-based products, for your current projects, the CiA Product Guide may be a relevant source. With the monthly CAN Info Mail (CIM), you get compact information of all relevant news.

Many of the CiA publications offer space for CAN users to present themselves to the CAN community in form of technical articles or advertisement.
